Re: Your Recommendations: Leadership & Honors Poll

Dt: January 2, 2006

In preparation for this year's BSA elections and major BSA and AIA honors programs, the BSA Nominating Committee and Honors & Awards Committee are seeking your recommendations of capable and interested individuals to serve in BSA leadership positions — officers, board members, and other elected leaders — and individuals, organizations and projects deserving special AIA and BSA honors.

To provide some context for your recommendations for elected office, the Nominating Committee has included a list of current Board members and a list of all members who have served on the Board in the past decade. We encourage self-nominations and nominations of new, young BSA activists as well as long-time BSA stalwarts.

In addition, the Honors & Awards Committee has provided summary descriptions of the honors for which your recommendations are being sought.

You are asked to list your recommendations on the last page (titled "BSA Leadership & Honors Poll") and mail it to the BSA by so we receive it by January 25, 2006. . . or e-mail your recommendations/nominations to rfitzgerald@architects.org.

Thank you.

BSA LEADERSHIP & HONORS POLL

1. Board & Committee Positions You are invited to recommend candidates for these offices:

Board

- A. Vice-President/President-elect*
- B. Treasurer
- C. Commissioner of Design
- D. Commissioner of Chapter Affairs
- E. Commissioner of Education and Research
- F. Commissioner of Professional Practice
- G. Public Director

Committees

- H. Ethics Committee
- I. Honors & Awards Committee
- J. Membership Committee
- K. Nominating Committee

(*By-Laws require previous service on the Board; see enclosed list of members who have served on the Board during the past decade.)

2. BSA & AIA Honors You are invited to recommend candidates for these BSA and national AIA honors:

- L. BSA Award of Honor (the BSA's most prestigious award, given to an architect for significant, sustained contributions to the profession and the BSA)
- M. BSA Commonwealth Award (the BSA's most prestigious public award, which honors an individual, an organization, an idea, an event or other entity – not an architect or architecture firm – who/that has made an unusually significant contribution to our awareness and understanding of our built environment)
- N. Honorary BSA Membership (the BSA's means of honoring an individual – other than an architect – whose long-term service to the profession, the public, and the BSA has been unusually valuable)
- O. AIA College of Fellows (the highest rank of national AIA membership; election is indicative of extraordinary contributions to the profession and the AIA; nominees must have been AIA members for at least 10 years cumulatively)
- P. AIA Firm Award (to honor a firm for a consistently distinguished body of work)
- Q. AIA Gold Medal (for distinguished service to the profession or to the AIA itself)
- R. AIA 25-Year Award (for a project that has withstood the test of time and remains an example of design excellence; must have been completed between 25 and 35 years ago)
- S. Honorary AIA Membership (for exceptional service to the profession by an individual other than an architect)
- T. Honorary Member of the AIA College of Fellows (primarily for architects abroad who are not eligible for election to the AIA College of Fellows and who have contributed significantly to the profession)
- U. AIA Institute Honors (for individuals or organizations who have had positive influences on or made unusual contributions to the profession or the built environment through a single achievement or a body of work)
- V. AIA/ACSA Topaz Award for Architectural Education (to honor an individual for excellence in architectural education)
- W. AIA Whitney Young Jr. Award (to honor an architect or architecturally-oriented organization for significant contributions to the resolution of the social issues of the day)
- X. AIA Kemper Award (for exceptional service to the AIA nationally)
- Y. AIA Young Architects Award (for architects in the early stages of their careers who show exceptional leadership in design, education, or service to the profession)
- Z. AIA Jefferson Award for Public Architecture (for architects in the private or public sector and for public officials and other non-architects)

Please list below the individuals who in your view have the potential to serve as officers, directors or other elected leaders of the BSA and individuals or others worthy of the BSA and AIA honors noted. To indicate the particular offices or honors for which your nominees are specifically suited, please write the appropriate letter in the indicated column. Self-nominations are encouraged. (Use additional sheets as needed.)
